

This map provides a detailed overview of the Kananaskis Country area, spanning from Banff in the west to the Alberta-BC border in the east. The map highlights several key locations including Canmore, Bow Valley, Spray Valley, and the Kananaskis Valley. Major roads like Highway 1, 2, 40, 68, 742, 22, 22X, 66, 762, 546, and 541 are clearly marked. The Kananaskis River, Elbow River, Sheep River, and Spray River are shown flowing through the valley. The map also identifies numerous lakes such as Ghost Reservoir, Sibbald Lake, Lac Des Arcs, Stoney Creek, Barrier Dam, Bow Valley, Heart Creek, Three Sisters, Mt. Shark, Chester Lake, Mt. Lougheed, and many more. The Kananaskis Country area is characterized by its rugged terrain, with numerous mountain peaks and wildlands. Provincial Parks like Don Getty Wildland, Nordic Bow Valley Wildland, and Bluerock Wildland are indicated. The map also shows various recreation areas, including campgrounds, provincial parks, and provincial recreation areas. A legend on the right side provides a key for these symbols. An inset map in the bottom right corner shows the location of Kananaskis Country within Alberta. A note at the top right states: "This map is provided for general reference only. It is not to scale and many of the Kananaskis facilities are not included."
