

Alberta Parks and Megan Samms present

Wildcrafted Colour

Dyeing with Invasive Plants

Make something beautiful while helping the forest!

August 4-6, 2017

Immerse yourself in the wild beauty of Lesser Slave Lake Provincial Park during this weekend learning experience. Textile artist Megan Samms will lead you through the process of preparing and dyeing natural fibres using invasive plants harvested from the boreal forest.

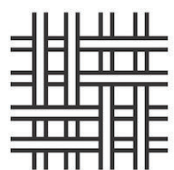

This workshop vacation takes place in and around the Boreal Centre for Bird Conservation within Lesser Slave Lake Provincial Park. Accommodations at the Nest Comfort Camping and meals included. Registration deadline June 30, 2017.

$475.00/person for shared accommodations

$525.00/person for private room (limited to 2)

1 scholarship seat available - contact Megan Samms for details.

For more information, call 780-849-7100 or email
ceiridwen.robbs@gov.ab.ca.

To learn more about Megan Samms:
<http://megansamms.com/>
megan.samms@gmail.com

Alberta Parks