

Writing-on-Stone Provincial Park

Cabins

Enjoy the great outdoors in Alberta with a much shorter packing list. Whether you are a first time camper, or looking for that extra level of comfort, these cabins will provide an unforgettable camping experience. Situated in a cottonwood tree stand of Writing-on-Stone Provincial Park, our three landscaped sites are located in the campground in the Milk River valley. All sites include private decks and comfortable beds that will take your camping experience to the next level of luxury.

Comfort camping is close to:

- "Hoodoo Hut" campground store (open Victoria Day weekend - Labour Day weekend)
- Visitor Centre (exhibits, gift shop, information)
- Close to drinking water tap, flush toilets, and coin operated showers
- Hiking Trails
- Natural sand beach and the Milk River
- Playground

Each site includes:

- Badlands setting shaded by cottonwood trees
- The comfort camping cabin unit
- Bunk bed - single mattress over double mattress
- Electric heater, fan, lights, and outlets
- A mini fridge, small dining table and stools
- Private deck
- Gas barbecue with side burner and propane
- A fire-pit and picnic table
- Parking for one vehicle
